To Whom It May Concern:

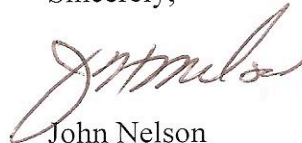

It is my pleasure to recommend Mr. Andrew Androstic for a teaching position in your school district. Mr. Androstic is completing his first year as a Social Studies teacher. His teaching assignments included World History and Geography I and U.S. Government. In addition to his regular schedule, he has taught remediation classes to assist students on the Standards of Learning tests.

As a teacher, Andrew demonstrates effective lesson implementation that contributes to student achievement. He involves the students in their learning by differentiating instruction and providing them with meaningful activities that maintain their interest. Andrew shows a sincere interest in his students and is consistently fair in dealing with them.

Andrew handles administrative responsibilities fully and on time. He continues to make efforts to strengthen his teaching by improving his own skills and classroom performance. His positive viewpoint and amiable character make him a pleasure to have on staff.

It is without hesitation that I recommend Mr. Androstic for a teaching position in your school system.

Sincerely,

John Nelson
Principal
